OneSeventeen Media Selected by MovingWorlds' Inaugural S-GRID Social Enterprise Support Program, Sponsored by SAP

SEATTLE, WA – (August 3, 2020) Mark Horoszowski, Co-Founder and CEO of MovingWorlds, announced today that OneSeventeen Media, PBC, has been accepted into the inaugural program, MovingWorlds Global Network, of skilled professionals, social enterprises, and corporate partners working together to achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

“By partnering with MovingWorlds, we are prioritizing the development of human capital within our team and making a commitment to accelerate progress towards our mission of mental health well-being for teens and tweens through our mental health platform, reThinkIt!”, said OneSeventeen Media CEO and Co-Founder, Beth Carls.

MovingWorlds launched the S-GRID program to provide “free ongoing and on-demand capacity-building support that helps social enterprises build, deliver, and sustain world-positive, revenue-producing partnerships with the corporate sector.” In other words, S-GRID can help teams build the skills, know-how, and connections to create sustainable revenue streams so they can grow and achieve their mission faster. Participating social enterprises will receive curriculum and training to help them on their journey, as well as feedback and coaching from MovingWorlds' corporate and industry expert partners.

About OneSeventeen Media, PBC

reThinkIt!, brought to you by OneSeventeen Media, is a digital mental health platform using chatbot assistants, live chat counselors and an evidence-based "early detection" assessment to help kids 10-18 better process difficult emotions, understand their own behaviors, and navigate those of others – at school, home or on their own. OneSeventeen Media's founders, Beth Carls and Amy Looper, are passionate about making kids' lives better and easier to manage. By creating relevant mobile tools, they help them navigate their world in a respectful, responsible and confident way to become successful, productive global citizens.
